Trio Anima Mundi presents their thirteenth subscription series season – The Reissiger Project – in 2020. Following the overwhelming response to their performance of Carl Gottlieb Reissiger's first Piano Trio in 2019, Trio Anima Mundi formally continues to embrace their 'Piano Trio Archaeology' mission of presenting rarely-heard works from the piano trio repertoire by featuring three further trios by Reissiger in their 2020 series.

2020 Series

The Reissiger Project

Concert 1

RELATIVE HARMONIES

Juxtaposes three compositions which are constructed around the same relative tonal centres of A Major and F-sharp minor. The romantic melodies of the Reissiger Fourth Trio and the elegance of the Celtic Prelude are contrasted superbly by the dramatic language of Armenian composer Babajanian.

Saturday 21st March at 2pm

CELTIC PRELUDE

Arno Babajanian
TRIO IN F-SHARP MINOR

Concert 2

THE SALIERI CONNECTION

Presents the work of two composers whose careers were linked by a common figure – Antonio Salieri. Both Reissiger and Beethoven spent time under the tutelage of Salieri, a formidable figure in the Viennese music scene of the time.

Sunday 14th June at 2pm
MELBOURNE

Saturday 20th June at 2pm
